Archbishop A Novel

The Archbishop is a book that does not shy away from asking big questions – nor from answering them. Author Hieromonk Tihon's identity has long since been lost to history and his fate unknown, but the vivid characters and intricately drawn world created in this book have indicated that The Archbishop may be an autobiographical work.

The Archbishop: A Novel - Kindle edition by Tihon ...

The novel was written to send a message to enliven the clergy into a healthy pastoral zeal that concerns itself with the whole human - body, mind, and soul. Hieromonk Tihon (I suspect a pseudonym), as the author, creates a kind of archetypal Archbishop who is close to his priests and tells them how to truly shepherd.

Archbishop : a novel (Book, 2014) [WorldCat.org]

I was lead to the book after reading Icon and Orthodox Afterlife. Of the three this was the most profound. The author answers the question, what is the essence of Christianity? by revealing what it is. After being an Orthodox Priest for 50 years I agree with the Archbishop. This book is on the same level as The Way of the Pilgrim.

Archbishop: A Novel / Digital original - eBook ...

'Archbishop' is, in many ways, a wonderful read and a worthy achievement by the author. Michele Guinness writes graceful, articulate prose with authority, meticulously researched and emotionally charged. Her style takes a little getting used to, and by the end I'd had enough of the 'present' narrative leading inevitably to a 'past' explanation.
