The Anglo Saxon Lyre is a 5-8 stringed lyre that was played between the 5th and 13th centuries. It was outlawed in England by the Normans, and all knowledge of the instrument was forgotten until the archaeological excavation at Sutton Hoo in the 1930s revealed the remnants of a lyre. The Museum of London Archaeology describes the Anglo-Saxon Lyre as the most important stringed instrument in the ancient world. At the time of the Sutton Hoo discovery there were no known lyres in Northern Europe, a
