Japanese The Manga Way Review. March 18, 2020. March 17, 2020 by Nick Hoyt. I wanted to write this "Japanese The Manga Way review" because I recently got a hold of the book and have gone through it to see how it teaches Japanese, how it uses manga panels to illustrate concepts, and what else is included. This is a book that I've always heard good things about from both the community and other people who have reviewed it, but I felt that I should check it out personally so that I can ...

My guide to self-studying Japanese | Japanese Tease

To answer the question reading Manga helped my Japanese a lot and is 1/3 of my time studying Japanese. I'd recommend studying at least the first 500 kanji in rtk so you can get a feel for how to break down the kanji, and then sentence mining the stuff you can almost understand except for like one word (depending where you are you might want to use something like Tango N5 to get some basic ...
