It's easy to search Wikibooks by topic, and there are separate sections for recipes and childrens' texbooks. You can download any page as a PDF using a link provided in the left-hand menu, but unfortunately there's no support for other formats. There's also Collection Creator - a handy tool that lets you collate several pages, organize them, and export them together (again, in PDF format). It's a nice feature that enables you to customize your reading material, but it's a bit of a hassle, and is really designed for readers who want printouts. The easiest way to read Wikibooks is simply to open them in your web browser.

Luna is currently the youngest dog in Stampy's Lovely World. Luna is the third dog to have been born from two existing dogs, the first being Chicken and the second being Sherbet. Luna was going to be chosen to come with Stampy in Episode 289, Jousting, but when Stampy cut the filming of the episode, Gregory Jr. was chosen instead. This was revealed in the Take 1 Video of the episode.

The rhyme may date back to at least the sixteenth century. Some references suggest it dates back in some form a thousand or more years: in early medieval illuminated manuscripts a cat playing a fiddle was a popular image. There is a reference in Thomas Preston's play A lamentable tragedy mixed ful of pleasant mirth, conteyning the life of Cambises King of Percia, printed in 1569 that may refer ...
