The Power of Poppy Pendle by Natasha Lowe - Goodreads

While Poppy is an excellent witch, all she really wants to do is bake. When she announces to her parents that she hates magic and just wants to make treats, her parents go to the extreme to stop her, pushing her into the blackest of magic. In this sweet story about true friendship, Poppy is a likable main character.

The first book in the Poppy Pendle trilogy tells the story of young Poppy herself and how she wants to be a baker instead of a witch. My favorite part of the story is when Poppy is at the local patisserie and baking like a professional, including her own recipe of caramel cookies. I recommend this book to anyone who likes fantasy novels and baking.

Power of Poppy Pendle - Read It and Rate It - Huntley Area ...

At first glance, The Power of Poppy Pendle seems like just another clone of Harry Potter, but it is so much more than that. The plot is deceptively simple and soars with the message to be yourself, no matter what. Poppy and the surrounding characters are tremendously lovable. You'll adore Poppy and stick with her through thick and thin.
