Van Tharp's Favorite Trading Books I'm often asked, "What are your favorite trading books?" Here I'll briefly describe my favorite trading books. I don't list them in any particular order because I'm not sure I can rank them that concisely. I've ranked them alphabetically by author, except that three of the books are my own and I've included them at the end. In addition, most ...

Music by: Ludwig van Beethoven Twyla Tharp's second ballet for New York City Ballet is a sweeping work for three principal couples and a corps of 12. It is set to music that is often referred to as Beethoven's "dance symphony" (after Richard Wagner's famous statement, "this symphony is the very apotheosis of dance").
